Agency outreach swipe file

This will help you when reaching out to potential clients with your video pitch and value driven follow up sequences

Presented by Jeremy Haynes

OVERVIEW & PURPOSE

Agency owners or digital marketers who have been trained on the perfect cold video pitch from Jeremy Haynes, can use this set of swipe file templates to help with knowing what to say when initially reaching out. There's also great copy swipe files within this document for you to use for value driven follow up.

Initial outreach - email

Value driven follow up examples

You want to send this kind of follow up after sending your video pitch, it's ok if they did or didn't respond. The intention of value driven follow up is to stay top of mind with potential clients while following up with info they can actually use, that makes it so you're not annoying. Remember, sales is selfish, you're reaching out to companies and interrupting their day to day operations, you better be bringing value if you want in the game.

Hey (name)!

Hope all is well

Made a quick video follow up for you (video link)

Would love to share more about the strategy I shared within the video

Let's coordinate a call for later today or tomorrow morning?

Excited to see if we can help!

Hey name,

Saw some of your new funnels, great work on those!!

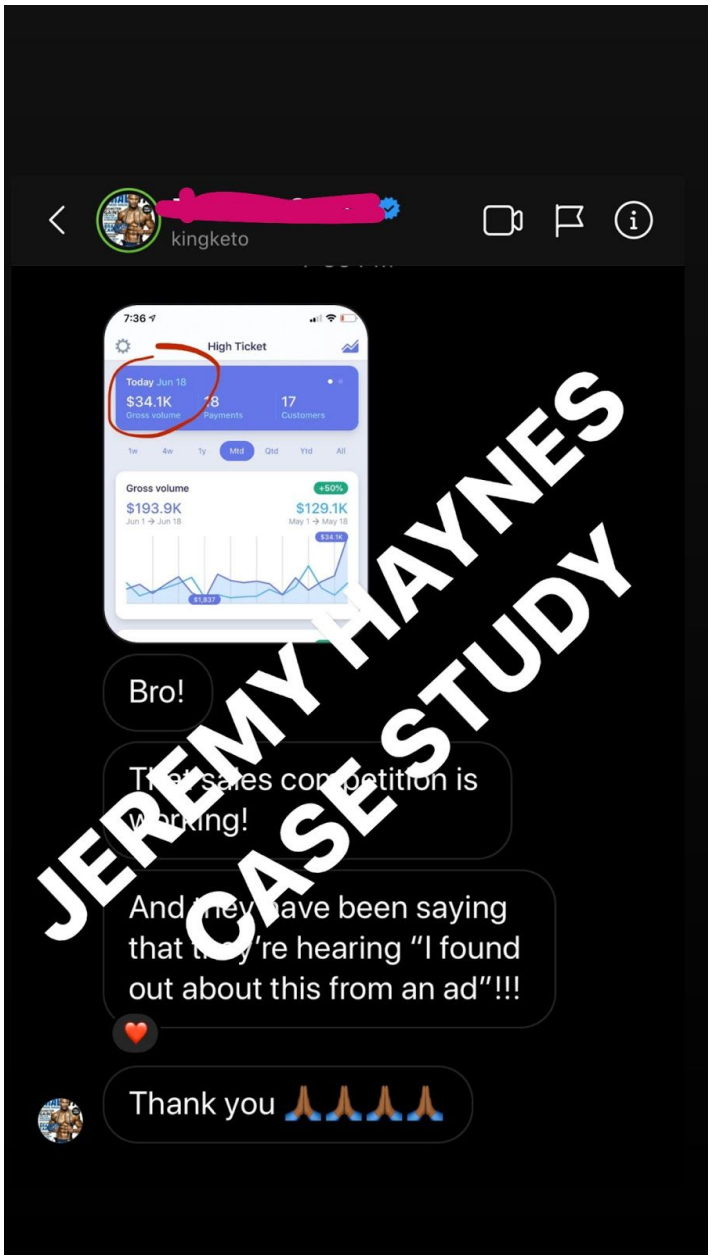
Wanted to share something that will help scale those new offers

It's also compliant so you can confidently take action on it

This video will elaborate further: (link to a follow up video strategy)

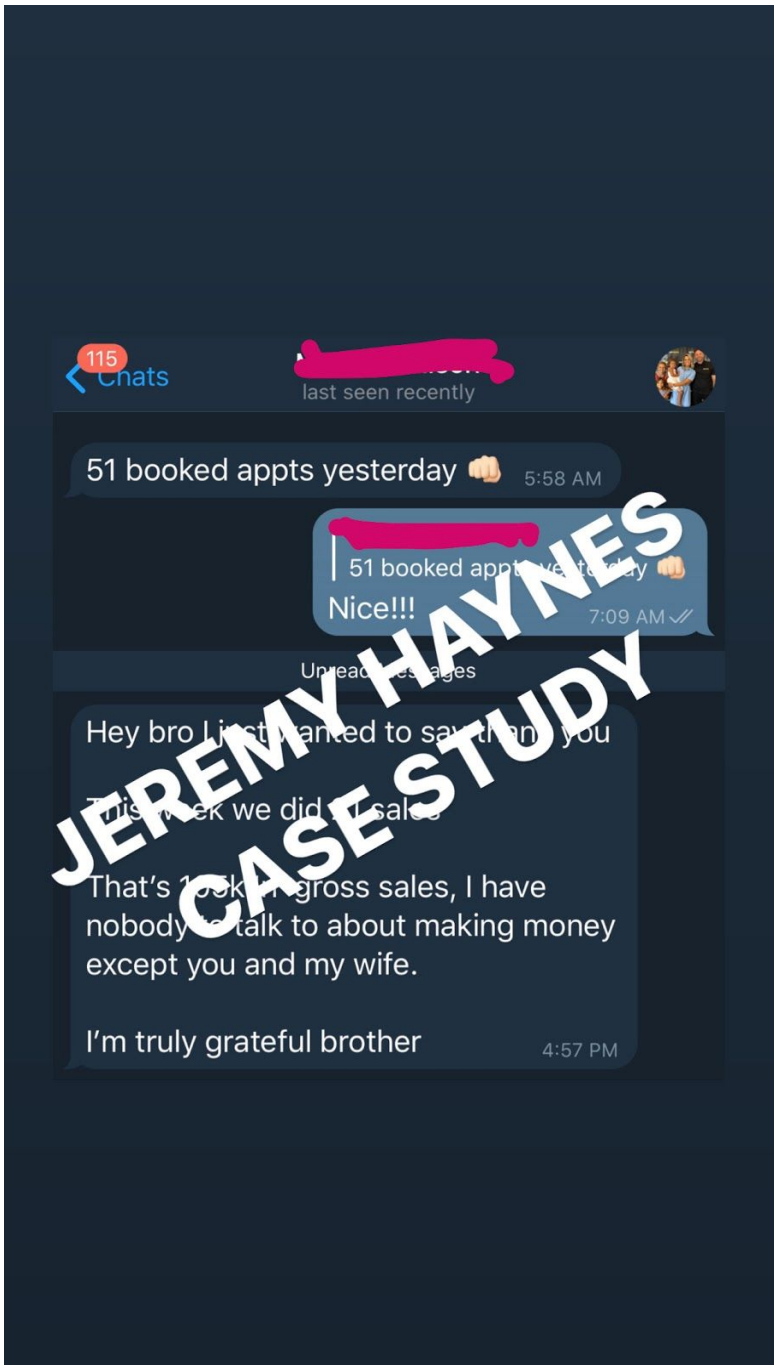
Hope it helps 🔥

Keep crushing it



Here's a recent result we were able to get one of our clients, we want to help do the same for you

When can we connect?



Just had a client do $105k this week in new sales, would love to help do the same for you

What's holding us back from getting on a call together to coordinate a deal?

Hey (name)!

Wanting to ensure we're not annoying you, any particular reason holding us back from hopping on a call and coordinating how we can help drive more revenue for your business?

Would love your feedback, thank you!!
